Disclaimer and Terms & Conditions

Please read and agree to the conditions below before making use of Cemcrete's (Pty) Ltd ("Cemcrete") Training:

Definitions:

The term "Training" includes instruction, both written and oral, product datasheets, application guides, data sheet guides and images on the company website, product packaging, demonstrations and product samples.

Good faith:

All representation of information is done in absolute good faith. The intention is solely to provide accurate information for the benefit of the industry & the public in general.

Usage of the training:

The use of the training including information provided is done at your own risk and Cemcrete, its agents, suppliers, or other third parties named accept no liability for any damages arising out of the use, inability to use, or the results of use of this training. The training given does not qualify you as an accredited / approved Cemcrete applicator and one cannot claim to be a qualified contractor.

Dealings with 3rd parties:

Your interaction, correspondence or business dealings with 3rd parties which are referred to is similarly entirely at your own risk and are solely between you and such 3rd party including the acquisition, disposal, payment and delivery of any goods or services, and any terms, conditions, warranties or representations associated with such interaction, correspondence or business dealings.

Disclaimer:

Whilst every reasonable effort is made to verify the accuracy of the training, we are simply reporting such training and do not in any way guarantee the accuracy thereof.

Limitation of Liability:

The use of information provided is done at your own risk and Cemcrete, its agents, suppliers, or other third parties named accept no liability for any damages arising out of the use, inability to use, or the results of use of this training. In no event will Cemcrete, its agents, suppliers, or other third parties named be liable for any damages whatsoever arising out of the use, inability to use, or the results of use of this training.

Data sheets: Due to continual development of our products, raw materials and application methods our official data sheets are updated from time to time. Please ensure that you have read the latest updated data sheets relevant to the product being used. These are available on our website www.cemcrete.co.za
